CHANGEABLE WEATHER... ISN'T IT??

The Welsh Assembly Government has declared a 'Climate Emergency'

We are carrying out this survey to understand your views (and perhaps fears) and to help us organise a major event in Llandrindod on October 23rd 2019 that we're calling

FACING THE FUTURE Climate Change and Us to explore the possible impacts of climate change and related global threats on ourselves and our local community's life, lifestyles and livelihoods, and find ways to respond to the challenges

COMMUNITY SURVEY

Please help us by answering the questions below and returning by Friday 27th September to: c/o Herb Garden Community Cafe, 5 Spa Centre, Station Crescent, Llandrindod Wells LD1 5BB

Place by hand in special box in cafe, or post in envelope marked 'Facing the Future' OR You can complete it on-line if you prefer by going to the Transition website (see below) Printable copies also available online to complete manually

Tick or circle relevant answers and add any comments in the end columns
We will not divulge your personal details or opinions in the overall results nor share your details with any third party

The Transition movement brings people together to find solutions to the problems of energy shortages and climate change that are having a major impact on the way we live. There are Transition Groups all over the world, and the Transition Network exists to encourage, connect, support and train communities to develop projects to rebuild resilience and reduce CO2 emissions.
