

Cut your home heating bills with Nest

Over the last 5 years 85,000 householders have contacted Nest. 23,700 have received free home improvements and saved an average of £408 on their energy bills.

We invite you to a talk by Peter Hughes about the Welsh Government Warm Homes Nest scheme. Learn if you too could be eligible for free improvements such as loft or wall insulation or a new boiler, whether you own or rent your home.

Cut your home heating bills with Nest

7.00pm, Tuesday 27th September at the Herb Garden Café

If your home is hard to heat, call Nest

The Welsh Government Warm Homes Nest scheme is here to help you keep warm and save money on your energy bills.

Nest is open to all householders in Wales and provides advice on saving energy, money management, energy tariffs, and benefit entitlement.

In addition to free advice, if you own or privately rent your home and you or someone you live with receives a means tested benefit you may be eligible for home improvements at no cost. These may include a new central heating boiler, loft insulation, or cavity wall and solid wall insulation.

Head of Nest, Lee Parry, said: "Nest offers a wide range of support and advice to help people who are struggling to heat their homes. Between 2011 and 2016, over 85,000 householders have contacted Nest and 23,700 have received free home improvements and saved an average of £408 on their energy bills."

About the speaker

Peter Hughes works with the Energy Saving Trust on the Nest Scheme as Partnership Development Manager for the Mid and West Wales area. His research experience encompasses behaviour change and environmental politics. He has previously worked as Project Co-ordinator and Home Energy Coach with Ymlaen Ceredigion in the promotion of sustainable energy behaviours and community fuel networks.
