

Repair Café House rules

The work carried out in the Repair Café is performed free of charge on a voluntary basis by the repair experts at hand.

Visitors are expected to carry out the repairs themselves with assistance from repair experts on site where necessary.

A voluntary donation to assist with the costs of running the Repair Café is greatly appreciated.

Any use of new materials such as leads, plugs, fuses, hinges, brackets, or replacement parts must be paid for.

Neither the organisers of the Repair Café nor the repair experts are liable for any loss that may result from advice or instructions concerning repairs, for the loss of items handed over for repair, for consequential loss or for any other kind of loss resulting from work performed in the Repair Café.

Visitors offering items for repair do so at their own risk.

Experts making repairs offer no guarantee for the repairs carried out with their help and are not liable if items that are repaired in the Repair Café turn out not to work properly at home.

Repair experts are entitled to decline to help repair certain items.

Repair experts are not obliged to reassemble dismantled items that cannot be repaired.

Visitors to Repair Café are solely responsible for the tidy removal of broken items that could not be repaired.

To cut down on unnecessary waiting times during busy periods, a maximum of ONE broken item per person will be examined. The visitor may then join the back of the queue if they have another item for repair.
